I am now confused which I probably did to myself. Bottom line is [REDACTED] is in. Some folks want another letter prior to the final acceptance coming because they were not offered a letter of intent. Sorry for the confusion. I will have a gift letter provided to you with the appropriate information i.e. tax id etc ... How would you like me to deliver the donation to Jovan.

I thought the conditional acceptance was conditional on a check which is not a letter I want [REDACTED] has been admitted conditionally then both are bound by the Letter of Intent. Admissions has not sent any official notifications to any athlete or student. Everyone who has been conditionally admitted must still finish their classes in good standing and graduate from HS. I will have a letter provided to you for the gift and the conditional admittance if needed.

Your thoughts?

Am ok proceeding and getting the year end tax break.

My sense is [REDACTED] is done, so do we need a conditional acceptance?

[REDACTED] I will be meeting with Jovan (USC Water Polo) on Wednesday morning to provide him a check from another family. He will be providing me a letter of the gift for tax purposes and a confirmation of conditional admission. Are we going to do the same for your gift on behalf of [REDACTED]'s admission or do you want to wait?
